

Help the bald eagle find its way back to its nest!

Did you know?

Bald Eagles mate for life, and both parents are very dedicated to raising their young. When looking at a nest (don't get close!) you can tell the parents apart by their size – typically the mom is larger! Help this parent eagle feed their babies by completing the maze to lead them back to their nest!

Want to catch sight of our national bird?

Follow the link or QR code below to explore places in North Carolina to view bald eagles in the wild!

america250.nc.gov/blog

AMERICA
250
NC